

Please fill out this form and email it back to me ASAP at reggie.beehner@eku.edu

I'm basically looking for any story ideas that we can cover for the department's newsletter. And almost anything will work, provided that it's either new or novel.

Examples include:

- Student or class projects
- Any awards or other achievements
- Any new classes, subjects, or other aspects of classroom life
- Any graduates doing neat things using what they learned here

Just write as much info as needed, being sure to give us contact info as well.

In addition, we need some info on alumni. So please, try to give a few status reports on any graduates so we can include them in the newsletter. (See the second page of this handout).

Thanks a lot.
