

$300 Elizabeth D. Fraas Scholarship

Department of Communication – Eastern Kentucky University

The Elizabeth D. Fraas Scholarship was created by an EKU graduate and is available to a junior or senior (more than 60 hours) student with a BEM major and concentration in Multimedia Journalism. It pays tribute to Dr. Fraas, a retired EKU professor and student newspaper adviser for The Eastern Progress.

Applicants must demonstrate a good academic record by maintaining a 3.0 GPA and submit an essay stating why they are worthy of the scholarship and describing their career goals in journalism/multimedia journalism.

Applicants should submit:

- Current resume listing education, work experience, and relevant course work
- An essay of 300 to 500 words:
 - “Why I am worthy of the Elizabeth D. Fraas Scholarship.”
