

CONGRESSMAN
ANDY BARR

REPRESENTING THE SIXTH DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY

Spring 2020 Congressional Internship Program

The office of Congressman Andy Barr is currently seeking internship applicants for the Spring 2020 Program in both his Lexington and Washington, D.C. congressional offices. We are looking for a diverse group of college applicants who are able to perform in a fast pace environment and have an interest in public service. Students with ties to Kentucky's Sixth Congressional District will be preferred.

A small stipend is available to applicants who intern in our Washington, D.C. office.*

All applications must be submitted by December 4, 2019.

We are looking for students working towards the following majors, including but not limited to— Business, Public Policy, Political Science, Sociology, Finance, Human Health Services, Communication, Social Work, International Studies, and Journalism.

The application can be found on Congressman Barr's website at:
